

Goetz Insurors Joins CIA-Insurance Agency

LEAVITT GROUP

July 16, 2020, 8:00 am

Goetz Insurors is pleased to announce they have affiliated with CIA-Leavitt Insurance Agency, a Leavitt Group company. With over 150 locations across the United States, Leavitt Group is one of the largest privately-held insurance brokerages in the nation. This affiliation will bring national resources and tremendous benefits to clients.

The affiliation will not affect current accounts, and clients will continue to work with the same personnel on the Goetz Insurors team with whom they are familiar. Clients will benefit from both teams' joint experience, relationships, and service-first resources. Goetz Insurors provides insurance to northeastern Colorado and offers a national equine insurance program.

"CIA-Leavitt Insurance is part of the nationally-recognized Leavitt Group," said Rob Carruth, senior insurance advisor at Goetz Insurors. "As we plan for growth and the future of our agency, this partnership gives us access to a network of insurance brokers whose collective strength will allow us to provide clients with additional national resources and insurance products."

"We are excited to announce our affiliation with Goetz Insurors," said Dan Bowers, co-owner at CIA-Leavitt Insurance Agency. "Our new affiliation is a wonderful opportunity for our agency and will enable us to enhance the depth of support and personal service to our clients."

Through their association with Leavitt Group, CIA-Leavitt Insurance Agency is able to provide clients with greater insurance market access and a wide range of services and resources. Clients receive employee benefits solutions, property and casualty insurance, risk management, and other services. Clients also benefit from a consultative approach to insurance. More information can be found at www.leavitt.com/cia.

