Hub International Acquires Assets of Mississippi-based MPE Employee Benefit Services

Chicago, January 18, 2021 — Hub International Limited (Hub), a leading full-service global insurance broker, announced today that it has acquired the assets of MPE Employee Benefit Services. Terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

Located in Ridgeland, Mississippi, MPE Employee Benefit Services is a third-party administrator (TPA) providing administration services and employee benefit plan design and solutions to employers throughout the Southeast.

Bill Saint Sing, President of MPE Employee Benefit Services, will join Hub Gulf South, and report to Shaun Norris, President of the region.

"The addition of MPE Employee Benefit Services solidifies Hub's position as the leading benefits consultant in the Jackson Metro marketplace," said Mr. Norris. "They're a great addition to our growing team."
