Nationwide Insurance Hall of Fame Member Ron Keats has completed the acquisition of Marino Coverage Group of Franklin Square NY. The Marino Agency served Franklin Square and surrounding areas with insurance for over 30 years. Its owner, Mary Jean Marino had a successful and award-winning career. Of her many accomplishments, Marino achieved Champion Level Production 15 times and Presidents Conference Level 5 times with her primary carrier.

In providing for a seamless transition, most of the Marino staff including Mary Jean herself is joining Keats. Clients will have the benefit of having the same folks caring for their needs and providing professional guidance and advice. Mary Jean is thrilled to have more time to devote to her customers.

"I love the opportunity afforded by Keats Agency for me and my staff," Marino said. "They are an industry leader and it's obvious why. Their organization is so skilled, technologically advanced and structured to offer the kind of service I want for all of my customers. They have far more carriers and options than we did and have extensive expertise in both Personal and
