LOS ANGELES, CA – Peninsula General Insurance, the top Mercury authorized insurance agency in California (<http://peninsulageneral.com>), today announced the acquisition of Anaheim based Coffe Insurance, one of the state's leading surety bond agencies. Terms of the acquisition were not disclosed.

Established in 1986, Coffe Insurance specializes in Surety Bonds and is a leading agency specializing in auto dealer insurance (<http://coffeinsurance.com>). Mike McKinnon, President and CEO of Peninsula General will lead operations for Coffe going forward. Following the transition, Coffe Insurance will continue operating out of their Anaheim location and servicing clients under the Coffe Insurance name.

Commenting on the acquisition, McKinnon said: "Coffe has a long-established reputation for both their dedication to unparalleled customer service and their expertise in the surety bond & automotive industries. We are excited to collaborate with the Coffe team and work together to further enhance our client offerings."

The acquisition of Coffe Insurance Agency allows Peninsula General to strengthen their presence in Southern California. "We are always looking for acquisitions that allow Peninsula General to provide our customers with a more well-rounded service offering, and that is exactly what Coffe Insurance brings to the table," commented McKinnon. Peninsula General Insurance is already the top independent home and auto insurance provider in Los Angeles. The Coffe acquisition not only allows them to expand geographically to Anaheim, but also adds surety bonds and automotive dealer insurance to their client services.
