Los Angeles, May 10, 2021 — The Liberty Company Insurance Brokers announced today that it has purchased the assets of Thousand Oaks, California based Gray-Stone & Company.

Best known for their Lawyers Professional Liability expertise, Gray-Stone has both a wholesale and retail component and expands Liberty’s reach in the Professional Liability sector, while also providing Gray-Stone’s clients with access to a full suite of service offerings.

“We always look for opportunities to grow our niche business lines and with the impressive team and deep client relationships at Gray-Stone, our LPL business gets that much stronger.” said DJ Mckenna, head of Liberty’s LPL Practice Group.

The Liberty Company Insurance Brokers is the fastest growing privately held insurance broker in the United States and provides entrepreneurial producers and agency owners a unique platform to create equity value in a rapidly growing organization with an amazing culture built upon its core values of Integrity, Excellence, Caring, Kindness, Fairness, Teamwork, Good Feelings and Fun.
