Relation Insurance Services Acquires Assets of SIG Insurance Agencies

Relation Insurance Services Inc. acquired the assets of The SIG Insurance Agencies. The partnership with SIG strengthens Relation's existing capabilities and further expands the platform's geographic presence in the Northeast.

Headquartered in Connecticut with additional operations in New York, New Hampshire and Rhode Island, SIG is an independent agency in the Northeast. Founded in 1991, SIG focuses on commercial and personal lines insurance products, employee benefits and financial services products.

It is led by insurance industry veterans Brian Rogers and John Cody, who will continue in their company's leadership. All 65 of SIG's employees will join Relation.

Relation Insurance Services is an insurance brokerage that offers risk-management and benefits-consulting services through its family of brands across the United States. It is a privately held corporation backed by Aquiline Capital Partners, a private equity firm based in New York and London investing in businesses globally across financial services and technology.
