Blue Ridge National joins PCF for transformational partnership

SALT LAKE CITY (PRWEB) AUGUST 10, 2021

PCF Insurance Services (PCF) announced the completion of a strategic partnership with Blue Ridge National, located in Springfield, Pennsylvania. Founded in 2017, Blue Ridge National is an expanding leader in hospitality and entertainment risks, offering insurance and risk management services for businesses to best meet their evolving needs.

"Blue Ridge National is a fantastic agency and PCF is so lucky to have them as a partner," said Peter Foy, chairman, CEO, and founder of PCF. "Paul Mattus is incredibly business-minded and brings with him a tremendous skill set for growth."

Blue Ridge National is led by Principal, Paul Mattus. Mattus will continue to lead all operations for Blue Ridge National while becoming an owner and partner of PCF Insurance Services. Mattus is an experienced and dedicated insurance professional, with over 20 years of industry experience.

"What really attracted me to PCF was the growth potential and overall business outlook," said Paul Mattus, principal of Blue Ridge National. "The business outlook that PCF provides heavily compliments that of my own. I am truly looking forward to this partnership."

PCF will bring added infrastructure and operational support to Blue Ridge National through its Shared Services team. This elite team of experts offer tailored support in the areas of finance and accounting, human resources, information systems, carrier relations, communication and marketing, and growth
