The partnership provides both firms with access to a broader pool of resources, industry knowledge, and niche expertise across several specialty insurance offerings, such as specialized construction, non-profit, transportation and logistics, and retail.

"We are excited for our partnership with Snider Killingsworth and how the combination provides expanded expertise and resources for our clients," said Oakbridge CEO Robbie Smith. "At its core, our purpose is about helping people—and we do that through providing our clients with the highest levels of service and expertise. By combining forces with Snider Killingsworth, we increase our ability to strategically support our clients with an expanded offering of solutions while also strengthening our already deeply rooted presence in the Griffin community."

Founded in 1947 by Otis M. (Pete) Snider Jr., and purchased by Terry L. Killingsworth in 1983, Snider Killingsworth has long been known for excellence in client service, from listening attentively to client needs to providing comprehensive, straightforward, and thoughtful independent risk management solutions to advocating for client interests. In addition to aligning with Oakbridge's values and culture, the firm's existing carrier relationships and industry practice areas are a great complement to Oakbridge's offerings.

"We are thrilled to become an Oakbridge partner and look forward to the growth and momentum that's ahead for our organization," said Snider Killingsworth CEO Terry Killingsworth. "This partnership will allow us to share best practices, create greater efficiencies and deliver even higher levels of value for our clients."

As an Oakbridge partner, Snider Killingsworth will maintain its office in Griffin, Georgia.
