First Light Dives in With Marine N-Surance Acquisition

Marine N-Surance Brokers, a wholesaler and managing general agency in Longwood, Florida, has been acquired by First Light Program Managers, the firms announced.

Marine was founded in 2002 by Paul Greenaway and has specialized in wholesale marine liability, marine packages, hull and property coverage throughout the country.

First Light Program Managers is a Florida-based managing general agency that offers specialty insurance products for various industries, through its network of insurance agencies around the United States. The acquisition will help First Light expand its niche programs, CEO Anthony Johnson said in a news release.
