Liberty Co. Partners with Southern Palm Agency

The Liberty Company Insurance Brokers has announced a partnership with Miami-based Southern Palm insurance agency.

The agency has seen three generations of family ownership and is now led by John Turner, the companies said in a news release.

“I was intrigued by how they (Liberty) meditate before meetings and the things they do for their partners to harvest a well-balanced healthy mind,” Turner said.

Liberty Company is headquartered in California but offers products in all 50 states. It calls itself one of the fastest-growing, privately held brokers in the country.
