Tyler Wilson, Chief Executive Officer of CWA, commented, "We are very excited to become part of The McGowan Companies. Its extraordinary underwriting, distribution, and technological capabilities will accrue to the benefit of our brokers and policyholders."

After the transaction, the staff of CWA will remain in place, led by Robert Carder, Director and Program Manager [P: (440) 333-6300 x3652 / E: bcarder@mcgowanrisk.com]. Bob Carder said, "Our facility is distinguished from most of our competitors, because we have dedicated, experienced underwriters who focus on underwriting complex Marine, Inland Marine, Habitational, and Miscellaneous E&S risks."

All of CWA's brokers will receive automatic, initial appointments with McGowan and its full range of products and capabilities. Coverage is available in all 50 states and Washington, D.C.

"This acquisition fits exceptionally-well with McGowan's national growth strategy," said Thomas B. McGowan, IV, President/CEO of The McGowan Companies. He continued, "We are very pleased to add CWA suite of products and coverages to our diverse portfolio of companies. CWA has a strong tradition of providing exemplary products and services to its clients... a tradition we intend to honor and continue."

Most of the programs managed by McGowan Risk Specialists ("MRS") are available on a nationwide basis. MRS operates on an "open brokerage" basis, meaning that its programs are available to all brokers in the United States.
