BURBANK, Calif., Dec. 6, 2021 /PRNewswire/ -- Monarch E&S Insurance Services (Monarch E&S), a division of Specialty Program Group LLC, which operates as SPG Insurance Solutions in California, announced today it has acquired the assets of Anderson & Murison, Inc. (A&M), a leading specialist and provider of standalone personal umbrella insurance coverage.

A&M is a full-service national surplus lines broker and underwriter of specialty commercial and personal lines insurance risks. A&M was incorporated in 1965 and the business began with a firm foundation in the late 60's "having the pen" for E&S carriers and becoming a Lloyds Coverholder. A&M now prides themselves on providing many online rate, quote, and bind processes.

"A&M has a great reputation in our industry and deep specialization in the personal umbrella space. A&M's operation will compliment Monarch's current offering and allow us to provide for a more robust personal lines solution with digital capabilities," Derek Borisoff, CEO of Monarch E&S, stated. "We are excited for the opportunity to offer A&M's retail broker clients more products in both personal and commercial lines. Culturally, both firms are a great fit with a keen focus on providing the Royal Treatment to our customers."

Jim McCarthy, CEO of A&M, stated, "Monarch is an organization known for its superior service to retail brokers. This strong sense of customer service is shared by A&M. Our joint capacity to fulfill retail brokers expectations will create an unbeatable combination of products and service."
