The partnership creates a broader suite of resources and risk management services for both firms, including agribusiness specialization, commercial and personal insurance, loss control services, claims management, and financial services products including life insurance and retirement solutions.

"We are excited to welcome Jenkins, Skipworth & Associates as our newest partner. Their location in the fast-growing suburbs of Atlanta and expertise in both personal and commercial insurance solutions for their clients makes them a perfect partner for Oakbridge," said Oakbridge CEO Robbie Smith. "This partnership will allow us to further extend Jenkins' successful insurance solutions and service offerings."

The partnership offers JSA access to Oakbridge's training and risk management programs, including its innovative Proactive Services model that seeks to identify and mitigate risks through proprietary analysis and management systems.

"Relationships are our business, and we're proud to partner with Oakbridge Insurance, a company who shares our values and commitment to client satisfaction and service," said JSA President Marvin Jenkins. "Our team is excited to leverage the efficiencies and training of the large brokerage, while maintaining the relationships and service our clients know and trust."

As an Oakbridge partner, JSA will maintain its office in Alpharetta, Georgia.
