

HILB GROUP ACQUIRES MASSACHUSETTS-BASED KING AND CUSHMAN AGENCY, EXPANDS NEW ENGLAND PROPERTY & CASUALTY PRESENCE

July 28, 2022

Richmond, VA – July 28, 2022 – The Hilb Group announced today that, effective July 1, 2022, it has partnered with Massachusetts-based King and Cushman Agency, further expanding the company’s presence throughout New England.

Based in Northampton, Massachusetts, King and Cushman has served the area for nearly 100 years, developing a proven reputation for expert professional advice supported by strong, established community connections. The agency focuses on property & casualty offerings for their clients in both commercial and personal lines. Agency Principal Scott King and his team of insurance professionals will join Hilb Group’s New England regional operations.

“Joining the Hilb Group presents an exciting opportunity for our business and those we serve,” stated Scott King. “We look forward to providing the same local, trusted service, while ultimately delivering even greater solutions, resources, and value to our customers.”

“We are pleased to welcome King and Cushman to the Hilb Group,” said Hilb Group CEO Ricky Spiro. “With a terrific reputation and long-standing community ties, they represent a perfect complement to our growth strategy of teaming with strong partners who have developed solid relationships with their local client base. We look forward to our next steps together.”
