RICHMOND, Va., Nov. 29, 2022 /PRNewswire/ -- The Hilb Group announced today that it has partnered with Pennsylvania-based Sharpline Insurance Brokerages, expanding the company's growing property & casualty presence throughout the Mid-Atlantic. The transaction became effective November 1, 2022.

Based in King of Prussia, Pennsylvania, Sharpline Insurance Brokerages, through their subsidiaries Madison Risk Group and Trinity Asset Protection, specialize in property & casualty offerings with a strong focus on construction and health and human services, as well as workers' compensation. Agency principal Ron Ebert and his team of insurance professionals will join the Hilb Group's Mid-Atlantic regional operations.

"We are thrilled to be joining the Hilb Group," Ron Ebert said. "This next step creates a unique opportunity for our business - we look forward to providing the same local, trusted service, while delivering even greater solutions, resources, and value to our customers."

"Sharpline Insurance Brokerages represents a perfect complement to our growth strategy of teaming with strong industry partners who have developed solid relationships with their local client base," said Hilb Group CEO Ricky Spiro. "We are pleased to welcome them to the Hilb Group and look forward to our work and service together."
