

View this article online:

<https://www.insurancejournal.com/news/southcentral/2023/04/04/715108.htm>

OGA Acquires Arkansas' Jaeger + Haines, Inc.

One General Agency (OGA) of Oklahoma City announced that it has acquired Jaeger + Haines, Inc., a wholesale broker in Fayetteville, Arkansas.

Since 1976, Jaeger + Haines has served agents across Arkansas, Missouri, Oklahoma, and Tennessee, writing excess and surplus lines commercial insurance.

Founded in 1951, the Oklahoma-based OGA is a second-generation, family-owned wholesaler led by Jennifer Dotter, President, and CEO. They provide E&S markets, standard markets, and premium financing to independent agents in Oklahoma, Texas, New Mexico, Kansas, Missouri, and Arkansas. They offer a broad array of solutions across various specialty divisions, including cannabis, professional lines, standard lines, and energy and environmental. This acquisition will allow them to increase their footprint in Arkansas and Missouri and expand into Tennessee.

The terms of the transaction were not disclosed, and the acquisition is expected to close in April 2023.

More from Insurance Journal

Today's Insurance Headlines | Most Popular | Texas / South Central News