PointeNorth Insurance Group, one of the largest locally owned agencies in the Southeast, has acquired Cooper Insurance & Associates in McDonough, Georgia, the company announced.

Cooper, founded in 1988, offers liability, physical damage, cargo, workers' compensation and general liability insurance for the transportation industry across the South. Charles "Ed" Cooper is CEO. He will continue to lead the agency and the firm will continue to operate under its name, but part of PointeNorth.

PointeNorth, led by CEO Bill Skeeles, entered the transportation insurance business in 2015 with the acquisition of Caribou Insurance Agency. Since then, the firm has acquired four other agencies. The agency is headquartered in Atlanta.
