

HUB International Strengthens Retirement Consulting Services with Acquisition of the Assets of Renaissance Benefit Advisors Group, LLC

Chicago, November 6, 2023 – Hub International Limited (Hub), a leading global insurance brokerage and financial services firm, announced today that it has acquired the assets of Renaissance Benefit Advisors Group, LLC (RBA). Terms of the transaction were not disclosed.

RBA, located in New York City and Atlanta, Georgia, is a nationally recognized retirement plan consulting and institutional investment advisory firm who provides the specialized experience and expertise needed to assist retirement plan sponsors in meeting and managing their fiduciary responsibilities under ERISA and mitigating fiduciary liability risk.

Founder Ellen Lander and the RBA team will join Hub Mid-Atlantic.

“The commitment of Ellen and the RBA team to being a trusted ‘fiduciary partner’ to their clients makes them an excellent fit for Hub as we continue to grow our presence in the Northeast,” said Hub Retirement and Private Wealth President Joe DeNoyior.

“We’re excited to be joining the Hub team,” said Ms. Lander. “They share our deep commitment to provide an unsurpassed level of proactive service, and we’re confident that they are the right choice in supporting us and our clients as we continue to grow.”

The move continues to strengthen Hub’s Retirement and Private Wealth (RPW) practice and its services to develop more comprehensive strategies for clients. HUB RPW works to help plan sponsors create an offering that aligns with their business strategy, navigates fiduciary risk and helps employees pursue their financial goals. The several registered investment advisory affiliates in HUB RPW provide investment advisory services to clients whose total assets are approximately $148 billion.
