IRVINE, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Alliant Insurance Services expanded its reach in Oregon by acquiring the Employee Benefits Division of Eugene-based PBC Insurance. The brokerage firm also offers property and casualty, life, and financial services, which are not part of the acquisition.

“PBC’s intent focus on their clients and ability to simplify employers’ experiences with insurance programs aligns closely with how Alliant does business,” said Tom Corbett, Chairman and CEO of Alliant. “PBC’s integrity and long, successful history in Eugene also make our partnership optimal.”

“Alliant’s commitment to client service and community along with shared culture, values, and vision was a primary driver of our decision for the Employee Benefits Division to join their dynamic forward-thinking team. We are excited about the growth opportunities for our staff and the significant increase in the level of resources and access to expanded services for our clients,” said Shelli Littlefield, President of PBC Insurance.

The firm was founded in 1993 and is known for its expertise in group health, dental, and vision insurance, FSA and HRA programs, as well as group life and disability insurance.

The entire PBC Employee Benefits Division team will join Alliant and continue serving clients from its Eugene headquarters. Terms of the agreement were not disclosed.
