

NavSav Insurance has carved a niche for itself in the competitive insurance landscape, recently achieving an extraordinary milestone of a half-billion in premium. This achievement not only underscores the company's robust growth strategy but also highlights the bright future that awaits.

"The addition of True Insurance Agency into the NavSav family represents our continued growth. We are thrilled to welcome their exceptional team into our fold, as we believe their expertise will significantly contribute to our collective success," remarked Brent Walters, CEO of NavSav Insurance.

Under the leadership of CEO Brent Walters, NavSav's trajectory has been nothing short of impressive. The company has soared to new heights, recently advancing 10 places to rank #54 in the Insurance Journal's top 100 Insurance Agencies in North America – a remarkable ascent from its debut position at #99 in 2020. Such a leap is a testament to the relentless pursuit of excellence and innovation at NavSav Insurance.

The company has consistently been acknowledged for its commitment to fostering a positive and inclusive work environment. For the second consecutive year, NavSav Insurance has been recognized by Great Place to Work and has also been celebrated as the best place for working parents. These accolades reflect the company's dedication to creating a nurturing and supportive workplace, emphasizing the well-being and growth of its employees.

As NavSav Insurance embarks on this new chapter with True Insurance Agency, CEO Brent Walters expresses unwavering optimism, stating, "This is just the beginning for NavSav. The future is promising, and we are ready to soar even higher with True Insurance Agency. Additions of agency's like True Insurance Agency reinforces NavSav's commitment to excellence, innovation, and community."
