This acquisition expands Colony Insurance's footprint and customer base with two new office locations in Monroe, Georgia (120 W Highland Avenue) and Greensboro, Georgia (1061 Parkside Commons, Suite 201).

Commenting on the announcement, T. Heath Fountain, Chief Executive Officer, said, "We are pleased to welcome The Ellerbee Agency to Colony. This acquisition supports our strategy of efficient growth and scalable expansion while staying true to our purpose of enabling progress in the communities we serve and delivering long-term value to our shareholders. The addition of experienced talent, strong customer relationships, and new markets positions us well for continued success."

The Ellerbee Agency is led by Sean Ellerbee, a well-known industry professional with over two decades of experience. Sean will join Colony Insurance's leadership team, where he will focus on sales and coaching efforts. The acquisition also includes the addition of eleven experienced agents, further strengthening Colony Insurance's team.

Jason Barnes, President of Colony Insurance, added, "Sean and his team bring deep experience and a commitment to personalized service that aligns seamlessly with our culture. Their addition enhances our capabilities and creates new opportunities to improve our offerings as we continue to grow Colony Insurance."

An investor presentation with additional details about the acquisition is available on the Investor Relations section of the Company's website, www.colony.bank.
