

Nautical services

Magazine of nautical services

SERVICES

Insurance - Funding

Maintenance

Transport

Job - Training

Yacht design

Fort Insurance acquires YachtSafe Global: a strategic expansion in superyacht insurance

© Maxime Leriche

Fort Insurance, an independent French broker specializing in superyacht insurance, is in the process of acquiring YachtSafe Global LLC, a broker based in Florida, USA. The transaction is designed to strengthen Fort

Maxime Leriche

Published on April 1, 2025

Consolidating expertise

Following this acquisition, YachtSafe Global will operate under the Fort Insurance name. Dylan Schwerdtfeger, currently Director at YachtSafe, will be promoted to President of Fort Insurance USA, while John Gaffney, current President, will assume the role of Chairman of the Board. Hugo Jacquot, Managing Director of Fort Insurance, emphasizes that this expansion of the Fort Insurance brand in the United States will strengthen relationships with American customers.

Synergy between two leaders

John Gaffney, who has worked with Hugo Jacquot for many years, sees the merger of these two independent agencies, located in the two yachting capitals of the world, as a logical step. This alliance aims to offer additional benefits to customers on a truly global basis. âeuro

Dylan Schwerdtfeger expresses his gratitude to John Gaffney for guiding YachtSafe to its current position and entrusting him with its future management. He is convinced that this partnership with Fort Insurance will enable both offices to prosper in a mutually beneficial way.

About the companies

Based in Antibes, Fort Insurance stands out as an independent broker offering insurance services to an international clientele. For its part, YachtSafe Global, based in Fort Lauderdale, Florida, offers tailor-made yacht insurance solutions designed to effectively protect owners and their investments worldwide. â¬

This strategic acquisition reflects Fort Insurance's desire to strengthen its position in the international superyacht insurance market, by combining the strengths and expertise of both companies to better serve a global customer base.

MORE ARTICLES ON THE THEME
