Founded in 1966, Arthur Hall provides commercial and personal lines expertise to clients across the country, with specialties in the life sciences, information management, non-profit, craft beverage manufacturing, and municipal industries. All Arthur Hall employees, including President Jim Denham, will join MMA and continue to operate out of their two office locations in West Chester and Wilmington, Delaware.

"Our clients are facing challenges on multiple fronts, and our value lies in the ability to foresee these dynamics and equip them for any scenario," said Andrew Neary, CEO of MMA's East region. "We look forward to bringing the Arthur Hall team's business insurance expertise to our clients in the region, while simultaneously establishing a new presence for MMA in Delaware."

Mr. Denham added: "MMA has a unique power of perspective that is unmatched in the industry. In our ongoing pursuit of enhancing client outcomes, it became clear that joining MMA was our best path forward for our clients and colleagues, providing access to a wide range of risk mitigation strategies and a network of experts for clients and resources to enhance our colleagues' careers."
