

Brennan & Company Joins Patriot Growth Insurance Services, Expanding Marine Risk Expertise and Regional Footprint in Georgia

Fort Washington, PA – June 3, 2025 – Brennan & Company, a Savannah-based insurance agency specializing in commercial marine insurance and risk management, joins Patriot Growth Insurance Services, LLC (Patriot), one of the fastest-growing insurance services firms in the United States.

Founded in 2005, Brennan & Company has built a strong reputation for delivering specialized insurance solutions to clients operating across the commercial marine sector, including marine terminals and stevedores, shipyards, marine towing companies, dredging contractors, and marine construction businesses. Led by principals Edward Brennan, Austin Denney, and Owen Brennan, the agency brings decades of experience and deep industry knowledge to each client engagement.

"Our philosophy has always been client-driven and coverage-focused," said Edward Brennan, Principal of Brennan & Company. "By joining Patriot, we're able to enhance that philosophy even further, giving our clients access to broader insurance capabilities and expanded resources through collaboration with Patriot's partner agencies nationwide."

This strategic partnership enables Brennan & Company to continue delivering the tailored, high-touch service that clients expect while also leveraging Patriot's scale, technology, and market leverage to build even more robust and cost-effective insurance programs.

"We're incredibly grateful and excited to welcome Brennan & Company to the Patriot team," said Steve Carroll, Chief Acquisition Officer at Patriot. "Their unmatched expertise in commercial marine risk, coupled with their stellar reputation for client-first service, make them a perfect fit. We're energized about the growth opportunities across the region and confident that this partnership will better support our clients' needs."
