"Golden Global Insurance has built its reputation on personalized, high-touch service and an independent agency philosophy," said Bob Hilb, Chairman & CEO of Choice Financial Group. "Their strong culture and expertise fit seamlessly with our goal of creating a connected platform dedicated to client success."

GGI will continue operating from its North Miami Beach office. Under Choice's umbrella, GGI's clients will benefit from expanded offerings and enhanced back-office support while maintaining the same trusted local relationships.

"Joining Choice Financial Group allows us to elevate what we offer our clients and attract top talent, while staying true to our agency's core values," said Marc Haime, Principal at GGI. "The acquisition empowers our team to continue delivering tailored, best in market solutions with enhanced resources."

This acquisition reflects Choice Financial Group's ongoing commitment to purposeful growth. By integrating agencies like GGI, known for their client-first approach and specialized expertise, Choice is reinforcing its position as one of the most collaborative and agile names in insurance and financial services.
