Leavitt Group is pleased to announce that Sonora Insurance Group has joined Risk Services – Leavitt Insurance Agencies. This partnership brings expanded national resources and access to a broader range of insurance companies to Sonora Insurance Group clients, while maintaining the personalized service of a locally owned agency.

“This decision was made with great care and consideration for the future of the agency, our clients, and our employees,” said Bob Malone, chairman, president and chief executive officer of Sonora Bank. “Our goal throughout has been to ensure long-term stability, continuity of service, and expanded opportunity for those we serve.”

There are no changes to coverage or daily operations, and the entire insurance team will continue serving clients. Although Sonora Bank will no longer offer insurance services, the agency remains committed to the same responsive, community-based service.

“We’re thrilled to welcome Sonora Insurance Group into the Risk Services – Leavitt family,” said Rob Eppers, co-owner of Risk Services – Leavitt Insurance Agencies. “With our expanded team and resources, we’re eager to help clients find the right coverage—whether it’s for your home, car, business, farm or ranch.”
