Crossland Coverage is pleased to announce it has joined Leavitt Group Texas Select, a Leavitt Group affiliate with five locations across Texas. This strategic partnership enables Crossland Coverage to offer an expanded range of insurance products and services, ensuring clients continue to receive the same high-quality service they trust.

“By joining Leavitt Group Texas Select, we now have the support of a larger team while maintaining our local knowledge and connection,” said Damon Crossland, owner of Crossland Coverage. “This partnership gives us access to more insurance company options, which means we can better match our clients with the right coverage—whether it’s for their business, home, or vehicle.”

Based in El Paso, Texas, Crossland Coverage has established a strong reputation for offering personalized insurance products and services to both individuals and businesses within its community.

“We’re thrilled to welcome Damon and the Crossland Coverage team to our agency,” said Dan Noltensmeyer, co-owner of Leavitt Group Texas Select. “Their deep roots in El Paso, bilingual service, and decades-long commitment to personalized care and community connection aligns beautifully with our agency’s values.”

The addition of Crossland Coverage brings a new El Paso location and a team of highly dedicated professionals to Leavitt Group Texas Select.
