King Risk Partners

The Arnold Insurance Agency is recognized throughout Ohio as one of the premier providers of construction insurance, small business insurance, personal insurance, risk management, and surety bond services. For over 40 years, their goal has been and continues to be to provide the best customer service and the best products to help protect their customers.

"We're proud to welcome Arnold Insurance Agency into the King family," said Scott Popilek, Chief Executive Officer of King Risk Partners. "The agency's respected reputation, depth of industry insight, and history of strong client relationships reflect the qualities we look for in our partners. This acquisition enhances our presence in Ohio and allows us to deliver even greater local support backed by the strength and resources of our broader platform."

Mark Arnold, President of Arnold Insurance Agency, shared his enthusiasm for the next chapter. "Joining King Risk Partners represents an important opportunity for our team and our clients," he said. "Providing outstanding service has always guided our work, and this partnership allows us to broaden our personal and business insurance solutions while maintaining the high standards our clients value."

Through this acquisition, King Risk Partners continues to advance its strategy of thoughtful, values-aligned growth, reinforcing its commitment to integrity, service excellence, and long-term client satisfaction. ☀
