Areawide Insurance Advisors has joined Leavitt Group Texas Select, strengthening the agency's presence in the Bryan and College Station area with the added resources of Leavitt Group, a national brokerage. Mike Kilgore, owner of Areawide Insurance Advisors, will continue to lead the local office as manager.

"Bringing Mike and his team into Leavitt Group Texas Select reflects our commitment to growing with purpose," said Dan Noltensmeyer, agency president of Leavitt Group Texas Select. "Their local relationships, combined with expanded access to insurance companies and resources, will give clients more choice and support."

Kilgore emphasized the benefits for clients as the agency moves forward.

"Clients will not see changes to their policies or the people they work with," said Kilgore. "What they will notice is broader access to insurance options and the backing of a national network. This gives us more ways to support families and businesses as their needs evolve."

For more than a decade, Areawide Insurance Advisors has served clients in Bryan/College Station, Austin, and Houston, helping individuals and businesses understand their coverage and make informed decisions about their insurance needs. The agency's independent model continues under Leavitt Group Texas Select, providing clients with a wider range of insurance companies and coverage options.

Areawide Insurance Advisors has served Texas clients for 16 years, providing personal and commercial insurance guidance grounded in local relationships and responsive support. The agency remains committed to helping clients understand their coverage and navigate everyday risks with confidence.
