Leavitt Group is pleased to announce Wade Chabassol Insurance has joined Dott-Leavitt Insurance Services, strengthening their shared commitment to providing trusted insurance guidance to individuals and businesses across western Pennsylvania.

As owner Wade Chabassol prepares for retirement, this partnership ensures his clients will continue to receive the same attentive service they've always known—now supported by Dott-Leavitt's broader network of resources and insurance company options. Chabassol will remain engaged with the agency during the transition to ensure a smooth and personal handoff for his clients.

"Joining Dott-Leavitt was a natural choice," said Chabassol. "We've known and respected each other's agencies for many years. I wanted my clients to be taken care of by people who share the same values—local connection, personal service, and integrity. I'm confident they'll be in great hands with the Dott-Leavitt team."

Moving forward, Chabassol's clients will be served by Dott-Leavitt Insurance Services' McKees Rocks office, managed by Ashley Strouse. The McKees Rocks office—also known as Peterson-Strouse Insurance Services—has been family-owned since 1974. Strouse, the daughter of long-time agency partner Gary Peterson, brings nearly two decades of insurance experience and a strong commitment to her community.

"We're honored to welcome Wade and his clients," said Josh Dott, co-owner of Dott-Leavitt Insurance Services. "He has built a strong legacy of service, trust, and professionalism. It's a privilege to carry that legacy forward and continue providing the personal care his clients have come to expect—with the added strength and resources of Leavitt Group behind us."
