King Risk Partners

Lewis Insurance has built a strong reputation as a trusted insurance partner for families and businesses across Georgia. For more than 30 years, the firm has emphasized personal relationships and responsive service, helping clients protect what matters most. Its experienced team offers home, auto, renters, and business insurance, along with additional coverage options tailored to meet evolving needs.

"We are pleased to welcome Lewis Insurance to the King family," said Scott Popilek, Chief Executive Officer of King Risk Partners. "Their longstanding reputation, industry experience, and commitment to client relationships align closely with the values that guide our organization. This addition strengthens our presence in Georgia and supports our ability to provide locally focused service, supported by the added resources and capabilities of King Risk Partners."

Jason Lewis, Owner of Lewis Insurance, expressed his optimism for the next chapter. "Joining King Risk Partners is a meaningful opportunity for our team and the clients we serve," he said. "Our focus has always been on delivering exceptional service. This partnership gives us additional resources to expand our personal and business insurance offerings while allowing us to remain fully focused on providing a high level of care and attention to our customers."

This acquisition reflects King Risk Partners' ongoing focus on deliberate, values-driven growth while reaffirming its dedication to integrity, high-quality service, and long-term client trust.
