Ewing-Leavitt Insurance is pleased to announce Holliday Insurance Agency has joined the agency. This partnership provides Holliday clients with expanded national resources and access to a broader range of insurance companies, while maintaining the personalized service of a locally owned business.

"Affiliating with Ewing-Leavitt is an exciting step for our agency," said Kent Holliday, owner of Holliday Insurance Agency. "It's a great business decision and a win for our employees and clients. This partnership allows us to offer more options and expanded services with the support of a strong team, while staying true to our shared commitment to doing what's right for our clients."

Founded in 1963, Holliday Insurance Agency is a family-owned independent agency serving clients throughout Colorado and Arizona. The agency provides both business and personal insurance solutions.

"The addition of Holliday Insurance Agency strengthens our presence in Colorado with a new office in Arvada and talented team members," said Steve Ewing, co-owner of Ewing-Leavitt Insurance. "We're proud to partner with a family-owned business that has built an outstanding reputation in the community. We're excited to welcome their team and clients and look forward to growing together."

Ewing-Leavitt Insurance is an independent agency representing many of the nation's top insurance companies, giving clients more options and coverage tailored to their specific needs.
