Ewing-Leavitt Insurance is pleased to announce that Union Colony Insurance has joined the agency. This partnership brings together two Colorado-based agencies with a shared commitment to client relationships and long-term growth. Through the partnership, Union Colony Insurance gains access to expanded resources and a broader range of insurance companies while maintaining the personalized service of a locally owned agency.

"As the insurance industry continues to evolve, it became increasingly important to find the right partner to help us continue growing and serving our clients well," said Lori Grannberg, owner of Union Colony Insurance. "Joining Ewing-Leavitt Insurance allows us to expand the options and support available to our clients while also creating new opportunities for our team. It was important to me to partner with an agency that shares our values and understands the Colorado communities we serve."

Union Colony Insurance has built strong relationships throughout the region by focusing on personalized service and helping clients navigate changing insurance needs.
