TH&A is a full-service independent agency specializing in commercial and personal insurance, as well as bonding for the construction industry. Founded in 1982 and led by second-generation insurance professional Todd Thomas, the agency proudly serves Mobile and Baldwin counties in Alabama, along with communities across the Gulf Coast. With a strong commitment to quality coverage and personalized service, TH&A delivers trusted insurance solutions to businesses and individuals alike. Together, we are proud to build on their legacy of exceptional service and continued commitment to the communities they serve.
