ENTERPRISE RISK ASSOCIATES EXPANDS HOA INSURANCE EXPERTISE WITH HAMANN INSURANCE GROUP ACQUISITION

July 28, 2026

Enterprise Risk Associates LLC (ERA) has continued its expansion strategy with the acquisition of Hamann Insurance Group LLC, a Katy, Texas-based independent insurance agency specializing in homeowners association (HOA) and condominium insurance. The transaction closed on June 17, 2026, although financial terms were not disclosed.

Founded more than 45 years ago, Hamann Insurance Group has earned a strong reputation for serving commercial and personal insurance clients throughout the Houston metropolitan area. The agency is particularly recognized for its expertise in providing insurance solutions for homeowners associations, condominium communities, and property management organizations.

The acquisition represents ERA's ninth agency investment and further strengthens the company's presence in Texas, one of its key growth markets. By adding Hamann Insurance Group's specialized knowledge and established client relationships, ERA expands its capabilities in niche property insurance while reinforcing its commitment to supporting high-performing independent agencies.

ERA said Hamann Insurance Group will continue operating under its existing leadership, allowing the agency to maintain the local service and trusted client relationships it has built over decades. At the same time, the partnership provides access to additional operational resources, technology, carrier relationships, and strategic support designed to accelerate future growth.

ERA executives praised Hamann Insurance Group's longstanding reputation for customer service and highlighted the agency's HOA and condominium expertise as a valuable addition to the organization's portfolio. The acquisition reflects ERA's strategy of partnering with entrepreneurial agencies while preserving their local identity and client-focused culture.

The addition of Vaughan Insurance Group follows several recent acquisitions by ERA, underscoring the company's ongoing strategy of expanding through partnerships with established independent agencies that bring specialized expertise and strong regional market positions.
