Inszone Insurance Services Acquires Advice Insurance Agency, Inc., Strengthening Auto Insurance Expertise

SACRAMENTO, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Inszone Insurance Services, a rapidly growing national provider of commercial, personal, and benefits insurance, is pleased to announce the acquisition of Advice Insurance Agency, Inc. This strategic acquisition further enhances Inszone's robust personal lines offerings, particularly in the auto insurance sector.

Founded by Steve McCulloch in 1992 and officially incorporated April 10, 2008, Advice Insurance Agency, Inc. has served its community as a trusted independent insurance agency for over three decades. With a heavy specialization in auto insurance, which makes up over 90% of its business, the agency has built a strong reputation for reliable and dedicated customer service.

After 34 years in the insurance industry, McCulloch decided it was time to step back, take a well-deserved break, and enjoy retirement. When looking for the right home for his clients, he sought a partner that could elevate the customer experience.

"I have been doing this for 34 years, and I was just ready to take a break, try some new things, and transition into retirement," said Steve McCulloch, founder of Advice Insurance Agency, Inc. "Inszone seemed very enthusiastic about partnering. After doing some research, I could tell they were a strong company with great things to offer that I didn't have access to, like life insurance and a wider variety of preferred and non-standard carriers. I knew that partnering with a stronger company like Inszone would be a huge benefit for my customers and give them far more options."

By joining Inszone Insurance Services, Advice Insurance Agency clients will now benefit from expanded access to a wider variety of insurance carriers, including new options for commercial auto, life insurance, and broader business coverages.

"Steve has built a wonderful, dedicated agency over the last three decades," said Chris Walters, CEO of Inszone Insurance Services. "Their expertise in auto insurance is a fantastic addition to our team. We are honored that Steve trusted us with his agency, and we look forward to providing his clients with an expanded range of insurance solutions as he transitions toward retirement."
