JRC Insurance has joined Leavitt Insurance Services of the Rockies, expanding the resources and insurance company relationships available to clients while maintaining the personalized service and trusted relationships they value.

Founded by JR Carnahan, JRC Insurance helps individuals, families, and businesses with auto, home, life, and business insurance solutions. Since entering the insurance industry in 2003, Carnahan has built his business around personalized guidance and helping clients find coverage tailored to their unique needs.

“Joining Leavitt Insurance Services of the Rockies allows us to continue providing the personalized service our clients expect while expanding the resources available to support them,” said JR Carnahan, owner of JRC Insurance. “We’re excited to continue serving our clients with additional support through Leavitt Insurance Services of the Rockies and Leavitt Group.”

Through the affiliation, JRC Insurance clients will continue working with the same trusted team while benefiting from additional insurance company relationships, resources, and national support available through Leavitt Group. The partnership reflects a shared commitment to building relationships and helping clients navigate their insurance needs with confidence.

“JR has built strong relationships with his clients and is committed to providing the kind of service that aligns with our values,” said Bart Winterton, co-owner of Leavitt Insurance Services of the Rockies. “We’re pleased to welcome JRC Insurance and look forward to supporting their continued growth and success.”
