Moores brings P&C insurance capabilities to high net worth and commercial clients

NEW YORK, Sept. 15, 2026 /PRNewswire/ -- NFP, an Aon company and leading property and casualty (P&C) broker and benefits consultant, today announced the acquisition of Moores Insurance Management, Inc., a multi-disciplinary risk management firm based in Minneapolis, Minnesota.

Mark Moores, CEO of Moores, will join NFP as senior vice president, Commercial P&C, reporting to Amanda Ruback, managing director of P&C for NFP's Central region. Jack Moores, president of Moores, will join as senior vice president of Personal Lines, reporting to Mary Mullen, senior vice president of Personal Risk for NFP's Central Region.

"We are thrilled to welcome Mark, Jack and the Moores team to NFP," said Brett Woodward, president of Personal Risk for NFP. "Moores is a long-standing risk management firm and this addition further establishes our presence in the Minnesota market and positions us well to continue delivering P&C insurance solutions for high-net-worth and commercial clients."

Since 1987, Moores has built a well-respected business serving high-net-worth individuals and businesses across 43 states.

"Joining NFP marks an exciting next chapter for Moores," said Mark and Jack Moores. "The combination with NFP will create significant value for clients, pairing our deep local relationships with NFP's broad resources and capabilities. Together, we will be even better positioned to deliver integrated solutions that meet the evolving needs of high-net-worth individuals and business owners."
